MR. SRIRAM RAJAGOPAL

Former - Senior VP - Cognizant, Human Resources & Global Head of Talent Supply Chain

I can confidently say that no one understands the intricacies of student learning like they do. Their learning model, active learning or practice-oriented learning as we call it, involves solving real-world problems, simulated business/application situations to help create an environment that is less on classroom/instructor oriented pedagogy and more of hands-on (hence practice-oriented).
